A Tsunami of Global Change...

Revisiting Strategies for Growth & Adaptability

This 551st ENP event serves as a bookend to the February 12th ReINVENT26 summit, providing participants with a chance to reflect on their ongoing journey of adaptation and transformation, revisit the strategies and insights that were shared during the February and evaluate how these next practices have been applied to the challenges and opportunities encountered since then.

Building Genuine, Strategic Connections

Beyond the thought leader updates, a central element of the event is fostering authentic relationships that are both meaningful and strategically valuable. Attendees will be encouraged to engage with one another, share their experiences, and collaborate in creating networks that support both personal and professional growth through constant change.
